

Wayne D. Hoch, Advisory Committee and Board Member

Wayne D. Hoch has specialized in domestic and international finance for over 25 years focusing on such areas as U.S. and international accounting standards, financial controls, risk management, internal audit, taxation, financial analysis and budgeting to support organizational growth.

From 1994 to 2006, Mr. Hoch was Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of GMAC Commercial Holding Corporation (GMACCH). He was one of the original members of the GMACCH executive team and served as a director of GMACCH and several of its subsidiaries, as a member of its Executive Committee, and as co-chair of its Enterprise Risk Management Committee.

During his GMACCH tenure, Mr. Hoch created the firm's global finance and accounting organization while guiding its operational expansion into international markets, coordinating mergers and acquisitions analysis and implementation, and designing and maintaining a robust corporate governance environment which included the build out of a comprehensive Sarbanes-Oxley compliance program. He actively participated in the acquisition and disposition of businesses, formation of commercial banks in the United States and in Ireland, and helped to establish business platforms in Europe and Asia.

From 1986 to 1994, Mr. Hoch held various senior level accounting and financial management positions at a GMACCH affiliate, GMAC Mortgage Corporation. Prior to joining GMAC Mortgage Corporation, he spent seven years (1979-1986) at AmSouth Mortgage Company holding positions in corporate accounting, information technology and internal audit.

Mr. Hoch holds both B.S. and M.B.A degrees from the University of Alabama at Birmingham and an M.S. from the University of Pennsylvania.
